Local Brevities.

Edward Bohn, native of Finland, yesterday made declaration of intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

The C. C. O'Neill Company will begin putting the knife to the D. Shanahan stock of drygoods and ladies furnishing goods tomorrow morning.

Prices are to be cut in two and bargains will be handed out to all comers as long as they last. This is a rare opportunity to make wise purchases.

Ice cream made of best cream, and sherbet 15c, pint. Orders promptly attended to. Taag's confectionery.

The first rehearsal of the sacred opera "Belschazzar" will be held in the basement of the Episcopal church tomorrow evening, the hour of the meeting being set at 7.30 o'clock. Director Robinson will be present and he desires to meet all those who contemplate taking part in the production.

Lost.—Gold bead necklace. Somewhere on Ninth street or on business streets. Finder return to The Astorian office and receive suitable reward.

A marriage license was yesterday issued out of the county clerk's office to Miss Genevieve Antonia Makale and Mateo Huiler, both of Clatsop county.

To close out our last shipment of choice pansies we will sell them at 20 cents a dozen. Next door to Unique. Cut carnations 50 cents a dozen and up.

Tillamook is now a closed town. Saloons are not permitted to open on Sunday, there is no gambling or slot machines, and even dice-shaking is legally prohibited.

The Finnish National Lutheran church, Rev. R. G. Risanen pastor, will conduct service at 10.30 o'clock this morning. Sunday school will convene at 12 and there will be preaching service at 7.30 in the evening.

The regular session of the city council will be held tomorrow night. Among the measures to be brought up for action will be the ordinance regulating the size and number of entrances and exits to public buildings.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duncan died Friday night of congestion of the lungs. The funeral will be held from the family residence at 1 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be private.

Bids for the improvement of the county road between Elk creek and Seaside will be opened by the county court on May 2. A good road through that section is greatly in demand as for some seasons it has been about impassable.

R. E. Basel is putting up a building at the end of the street car line in the west end. The building will be used by Mr. Basel as a confectionery store and ice cream stand as the location is a good one he expects to do a rushing business.

Nels Iverson, a resident of Skamokawa, had the misfortune to lose the first finger on his left hand, the finger being amputated by Dr. Estes. The accident occurred through Mr. Iverson getting his hand caught in the sprocket of a bicycle.

The little son of William Larson, of Fern Hill, met with a painful accident Friday that may result in permanent injury to one of his feet. The little fellow was playing with an ax and in some manner cut one of his toes. The wounded member is receiving careful attention and it is possible that the toe will be saved.

C. C. O'Neill & Co. of Chicago, have the entire stock of dry goods and clothing of D. Shanahan and their expert salesman Mr. J. Howard Gotshall will sell this stock at the store of D. Shanahan. Store will be opened Monday, April 18, at 9 a. m. Come and see the bargains for yourself in this stock.

C. C. O'NEILL & CO.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. O'Brien died Friday evening. The child had been in delicate health for some weeks, being a sufferer of stomach trouble. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock from the family residence in the east end and the interment will be at Greenwood cemetery.

The many friends of Rev. J. W. McCormack were delighted to see the old gentleman on the streets yesterday. He has been in a Portland sanitarium for some weeks, his indisposition having been caused by a rough trip he experienced en route to Marsh land, where he went to pay a visit to his son. He is much better now and it is expected will soon regain his usual health.

The lumbering industry in Tillamook county has been demoralized of late, and only one small mill is running there. The mill is located at Tillamook, but its capacity is limited and it is only at long intervals a cargo is sent away. The big Trukee mill, with a daily capacity of from 60,000 to 70,000 feet has been closed down, and it is reported it will not be again operated. Both of the mills on the Nehalem river have also been closed down. Logging operations are at a standstill.

When the name of William Randolph Hearst was mentioned at the democratic convention yesterday the delegates went more or less wild, principally more. It is generally understood that the delegates named yesterday are for Hearst and will contribute their efforts toward his endorsement by the state delegation, though there were no specific instructions to that end. General enthusiasm was displayed, however, when Hearst was suggested as the presidential nominee and it is conceded by leading local democrats that the delegation will stand solid for him.

The committee of ten, appointed to ascertain sentiment of owners of tide washed lands regarding the construction of a sea wall, will meet in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. All the members are urged to be present as business of importance will be transacted. The committee has been steadily at work since its appointment gathering in the views of the property holders who would be the most directly affected by the proposed improvement and at the meeting tomorrow evening the idea is to map out some definite plan of action to be followed in the future.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Oregon City, Ore., Feb. 18, 1904.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled

"An act for the sale of timber lands in the State of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Fred Hendrickson, of Astoria, County of Clatsop, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 6366, for the purchase of the N. E. 1-4 of Section No. 20, in Township No. 5 N., Range No. 8 west, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the County Clerk of Clatsop County, at Astoria, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 10th day of May, 1904.

He names as witnesses: Arthur M. Smith, of Astoria, Clatsop Co., Oregon; Charles C. Kaup, of Astoria, Clatsop Co., Oregon; J. R. Wherry, of Elsie, Clatsop Co., Oregon; Roy Wherry, of Collins, Washington.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 10th day of May, 1904.
